After Month 7

After 7 months, select the option that best fits your child's ability level:

- A. My child cannot consistently recognize at least 20 written words.
- B. My child can consistently recognize between 20 and 50 written words.
- C. My child can consistently recognize at least 50 written words.

A: Continue to allow your child to watch one or two Your Baby Can Learn! videos a day in a random order. Play with words using the Sliding Word and Picture Cards, Lift-the-Flap Books, Teaching Cards, and Milestone Cards as well as whiteboards, chalkboards, paper, and other materials. Once your child can consistently recognize at least 20 written words, move to letter B below.

B: Begin watching Your Child Can Read! Volume 1 about three times a week, but mostly continue using the first five volumes of Your Baby Can Learn! Use the Teaching Cards, Sliding Word and Picture Cards, Milestone Cards, and Lift-the-Flap Books as well as the 11 Your Baby Can Learn! videos. Watch one or two videos a day, viewing both versions of Volume 5 a little more than the others. As soon as your child can consistently recognize at least 50 written words, move to the Your Child Can Read! schedule.

C: Advance to the Your Child Can Read! schedule here. Occasionally review the Your Baby Can Learn! videos.

Remember to continue using all of your Your Baby Can Learn! books and word cards!
